DIFESA DI ROMA

1849

Il 29 aprile 1849 i Romani, sotto gli ordini del generale Garibaldi, preparavano le difese e le barricate per il sopraggiungere dei Francesi, che si avanzavano con settemila uomini.

Tentata in primo luogo porta Cavalleggeri da cui furono respinti per opera della guardia civica. Eransi i nemici rivolti alla porta San Pancrazio, ove presso la batteria stava Garibaldi con 300 uomini, vegliando alla difesa.

Con questo pugno di prodi, egli sostenne l'urto dei battaglioni nemici e per qualche tempo ne contenne la foga; una palla di cannone scoppiando poco discosto l'aveva coperto di polvere, la cintura della sua spada era stata lambita da un tiro di moschetto, due altri avangli bucaro il mantello, buona parte dei 300 erano caduti morti o feriti.

Allora Garibaldi si ritirasse in ordine coi superstiti e si ricongiunse alla riserva, riordinò celeremente: colà le scomposte file ed unito ad altre truppe fresche si riversò con impeto sui nemici, che già s'erano inoltrati sin presso le porte. L'urto ed il furore dei combattenti furono tali, che i Francesi, perduto alfine ogni ordine, cominciarono a retrocedere ed a cercare un rifugio nelle case vicine, ove riuscirono a trincerarsi.

Ma per poco: chè Garibaldi con tre sole compagnie si avventò egli stesso a sloggiarli. E con tanto ardore li investiva, che dopo un lungo combattimento li costringeva a ritirarsi, facendo loro molti prigionieri.

Durò il memorando conflitto sino alle sei di sera lasciandovi i Francesi circa cinquecento morti e poco meno di seicento prigionieri.
